CLASSIFICATION CONTIDUATION  INFORMATION REPORT  CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY  INFORMATION REPORT  CD NO  DATE DISTR to become report to the contract of the co	1	1/2	810A0029	13 · CIA_DDD80_I	:a 2005/07/	ad For Palassa	Λnn	Determine a w. s
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY INFORMATION REPORT  OD NO  OUNTRY P. 1974  ARBJECT THE Forced labor vamp No. 1 in Jareau  NO. OF PAGES  Z  LACE CQUIRED SX1  MTE OF INFO.  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  1. OP-1 (Osrodek Pracy No. 1) is a forced labor comp, whose dimensions are about 600 by 800 meters. The comp is enclosed by barbed wire. It is located in Warsaw-Sluzwice, directly south of the practice racetrack and directly went of the racetruck and grandstanda.  2. The comp is under the administration of the Ministry of Public Security (NaP).  3. OP-1 contains approximately 1,500 forced laborers, mostly Poles serving sen- tences of up to five years. OP-1 absorbed 700 forced laborers when OP-2 was consolidated with it in late 1959 OP-2 was formerly located in an area slong the Vistula river, on the northern side of the city.  4. OP-1 provides the manpower for PMEP, the construction division of the 1942. PMEP is responsible for the construction of all MEP facilities in the Warsaw area (over 50 different installations).  5. OP-3 is located near the Jewish cemetery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsay There are between 3,000 and 4,000 forced laborers being held there. These are prisoners who have received sentences over five years. The forced laborers in OP-3 are primarily employed in the nanufacture of cement.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German brisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  PMEP was commanded by Colonel Goldstein (fmu). The section chiefs were as follows: Zeczynski (fmu), chief of construction; classwick (fmu) assistant chief of construction may be construction of the project chief for building Ro. 500;	25X <sup>2</sup>	45	1117					4.1
INFORMATION REPORT  OUNTRY PART OF Forced Labor value No. 1 in Marsaw  NO. OF PAGES  NO. OF PAGES  NO. OF PAGES  NO. OF PAGES  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  1. OP-1 (Osrocek Pracy No. 1) is a forced labor camp, whose dimensions are about 600 by 800 meters. The camp is enclosed by barbed wire. It is located in Marsaw-Sluxevice, directly south of the practice racetrack and directly west of the racetrack and grandstands.  2. The camp is under the administration of the Ministry of Public Security (NEP).  3. OP-1 contains approximately 1,500 forced laborers, mostly Poles serving sentences of up to five years. OP-1 absorbed 700 forced laborers when OP-2 was consolidated with it in late 1952 OP-2 was formerly located in an area slong the Vistula river, on the northern side of the city.  4. OP-1 provides the mampower for PMEP, the construction division of the NATE of PMEP is responsible for the construction of all MEP facilities in the Warraw area (over 50 different installations).  5. OP-3 is located near the Jevish cometery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsaw. There are between 3,000 and 4,000 forced laborers being held there.  1932, there were approximately described sentences over five years. The forced laborers in OP-3 are primarily employed in the canufacture of cement.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1932, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  PMEP was commanded by Colonel Goldstein (fmu). The section chiefs were as follows: Zaczynaki (fmu), chiefs were as follows: Zaczynaki (fmu) chief of construction; Olszewski (fmu), assistent chief of construction and the project chief for building No. 500;	7.	•	DEDORT NO				Ci
PLACE CQUIRED SX1 MIE OF INFO.  1. OP-1 (Oarotek Pracy No. 1) is a forced labor camp, whose dimensions are about 600 by 800 meters. The camp is enclosed by barbed wire. It is located in Warsaw-Sluzevice, directly south of the practice recetrack and directly west of the remember of the administration of the Ministry of Public Security (NBP).  3. OP-1 contains approximately 1,500 forced laborers, mostly Poles serving sentences of up to five years. OP-1 absorbed 700 forced laborers when OP-2 was consolidated with it in late 1952 OP-2 was formerly located in an area slong the Vistula river, on the northern side of the city.  4. OP-1 provides the manpower for PMDP, the construction division of the NPDP is responsible for the construction of all MEP Accilities in the Warsaw area (over 20 different installations).  5. OP-3 is located near the Jevish cemetery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsaw area (over 20 different installations).  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  7. Chiefs were an follows: Zaczynski (fmu), chief of construction; Olszewski (fmu), assistant chief of construction and the project chief for building (fmu), assistant chief of construction and the project chief for building (fmu), assistant chief of construction and the project chief for building (fmu), assistant chief of construction and the project chief for building (fmu), assistant chief of construction and the project chief for building (fmu), assistant chief of construction and the project chief for building (fmu), so the project chief for building (fmu), the section chiefs were an followed the section chiefs were the followed the section chiefs were the followed the section chief for building (fmu), section for the construction and the project chief for building (fmu), section for the construction and the project chief for building (fmu), section for the construction and the project chief for building (fmu).	J								-
**************************************
ACCURRED  25X1  ACCURRED  25X1  ACCURRED  25X1  ACCURRED  25X1  ACCURRED  25X1  ACCURRED  25X1  ACCURRED  ACCURED  ACCURRED  ACCURRED  ACCURRED  ACCURRED  ACCURRED  ACCURRED  A	3	Dawister 195.	DATE DISTR LE	•			Felland	UNTRY	ş
SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  1. OP-1 (Osrociek Pracy No. 1) is a forced labor camp, whose dimensions are about 600 by 800 meters. The camp is enclosed by barbed wire. It is located in Warsaw-Sluzewice, directly south of the practice racetrack and directly west of the racetrack and grandstands.  2. The camp is under the administration of the Ministry of Public Security (MSP).  3. OP-1 contains approximately 1,500 forced laborers, mostly Poles serving sentences of up to five years. OP-1 absorbed 700 forced laborers when OP-2 was consolidated with it in late 1952 OP-2 was formerly located in an area slong the Vistula river, on the northern side of the city.  4. OP-1 provides the manpower for PMSP, the construction division of the Marsaw area (over 50 different installations).  5. OP-3 is located near the Jevish cemetery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsaw area (over 50 different installations).  5. OP-3 is located near the Jevish cemetery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsaw area force who have received sentences over five years. The forced laborers in OP-3 are primarily employed in the manfacture of cement.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  25X1  7. PMSP was commanded by Colonel Goldstein (fmu). The section chiefs were as follows: Zaczynaki (fmu), chief of construction; Olszewski (fmu), assistant chief of construction and the project chief for building No. 500;		· Z	NO. OF PAGES	sav	l in Jar	oer camp No.	UBP Forced	BJECT	4.3
i. OP-1 (Osrodek Pracy No. 1) is a forced labor camp, whose dimensions are about 600 by 800 meters. The camp is enclosed by barbed vire. It is located in Warsaw-Sluzwicz and grandstands.  2. The camp is under the administration of the Ministry of Public Security (MSF).  3. OP-1 contains approximately 1,500 forced laborers, mostly Poles serving sentences of up to five years. OP-1 absorbed 700 forced laborers when OP-2 was consolidated with it in late 1952 OP-2 was formerly located in an area along the Vistula river, on the northern side of the city.  4. OP-1 provides the manpower for PMSP, the construction division of the Marsaw area (over 50 different installations).  5. OP-3 is located mean the Jewish cemetery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsaw There are between 3,000 and 4,000 forced laborers being held there. These are prisoners who have received sentences over five years. The forced laborers who have received sentences over five years. The forced laborers who have received sentences over five years. The forced laborers in OP-3 are primarily employed in the manufacture of cement.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  15X1  7. MED THE OFFICE OFFIC			NO. OF ENCLS.			:		QUIRED	3
1. OP-1 (Osrodek Pracy No. 1) is a forced labor camp, whose dimensions are about 600 by 800 meters. The camp is enclosed by barbed wire. It is located in Warsaw-Sluzewice, directly south of the practice racetrack and directly west of the racetrack and grandstands.  2. The camp is under the administration of the Ministry of Public Security (MBP).  3. OP-1 contains approximately 1,500 forced laborers, mostly Poles serving sentences of up to five years. OP-1 absorbed 700 forced laborers when OP-2 was consolidated with it in late 1952 OP-2 was formerly located in an area slong the Vistula river, on the northern side of the city.  4. OP-1 provides the manpower for PMBP, the construction division of the Marsaw area (over 50 different installations).  5. OP-3 is located near the Jewish cemetery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsaw area (over 50 different installations).  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  5. OP-3 is second of the company of the manufacture of cement.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.				÷
Warsaw-Sluzewiec, directly south of the practice racetrack and directly west of the racetrack and grandstands.  2. The camp is under the administration of the Ministry of Public Security (MSP).  3. OP-1 contains approximately 1,500 forced laborers, mostly Poles serving sentences of up to five years. OP-1 absorbed 700 forced laborers when OP-2 was consolidated with it in late 1952 OP-2 was formerly located in an area slong the Vistula river, on the northern side of the city.  4. OP-1 provides the manpower for PMBP, the construction division of the Markov area (over 50 different installations).  5. OP-3 is located near the Jewish cemetery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsaw area (over 50 different installations).  5. OP-3 is located near the Jewish cemetery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsaw. There are between 3,000 and 4,000 forced laborers being held there. These are prisoners who have received sentences over five years. The forced laborers in OP-3 are primarily employed in the manufacture of cement.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  7. PMBP was commanded by Colonel Goldstein (fnu). The section chiefs were as follows: Zaczynski (fnu), chief of construction; Olazewski (fnu), sessistant chief of construction and the project chief for building No. 500;			X1	2		THE ESPICIANCE ACT NO HON OR THE REVELATION ON THE REVELATION OF PRO-	TES WITHIN THE MEARING AS AMERDED. ITS TRANS IN ANY MARKET TO AN UNI REPRODUCTION OF THIS FI	F THE UNITED ST. . J. C., DI AND BE. F 'TH CONTENTS I' IBITED BY LAW	のない。
Warsaw-Sluzewiec, directly south of the practice racetrack and directly west of the racetrack and grandstands.  2. The camp is under the administration of the Ministry of Public Security (MSP).  3. OP-1 contains approximately 1,500 forced laborers, mostly Poles serving sentences of up to five years. OP-1 absorbed 700 forced laborers when OP-2 was consolidated with it in late 1952 OP-2 was formerly located in an area slong the Vistula river, on the northern side of the city.  4. OP-1 provides the manpower for PMBP, the construction division of the Markov area (over 50 different installations).  5. OP-3 is located near the Jewish cemetery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsaw area (over 50 different installations).  5. OP-3 is located near the Jewish cemetery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsaw. There are between 3,000 and 4,000 forced laborers being held there. These are prisoners who have received sentences over five years. The forced laborers in OP-3 are primarily employed in the manufacture of cement.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  7. PMBP was commanded by Colonel Goldstein (fnu). The section chiefs were as follows: Zaczynski (fnu), chief of construction; Olazewski (fnu), sessistant chief of construction and the project chief for building No. 500;
5. OP-3 is located near the Jewish cemetery in the "Gaenze Viertel" of Warsaw. There are between 3,000 and 4,000 forced laborers being held there. These are prisoners who have received sentences over five years. The forced laborers in OP-3 are primarily employed in the manufacture of cement.  6. OP-1 serves also as a staging area for German prisoners of war. In November 1952, there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  7. PMBP was commanded by Colonel Goldstein (fnu). The section chiefs were as follows: Zaczynski (fnu), chief of construction; Olszewski (fnu), assistant chief of construction and the project chief for building No. 500;	eti vi	rity (MBP). ring sen- OP-2 was area slong	racetrack and directly of Public Sec , mostly Poles ser reed laborers when erly located in ar ty.	on of the Mini forced laborer absorbed 700 f	y south of distands.  inistration ly 1,500 s. OP-1 ate 1950 northern r for PMB he constr	iec, directly nck and grand nder the admi approximatel to five years with it in la iver, on the the manpower maible for th	Warsaw-Sluz of the race The camp is OP-1 contaitences of u consolidate the Vistuls OP-1 provid PMEP is res	3.
there were approximately 80 Germans being held there.  there were only 10 Germans being held there.  7. PMBP was commanded by Colonel Goldstein (fnu). The section chiefs were as follows: Zaczynski (fnu), chief of construction; Olszewski (fnu), assistant chief of construction and the project chief for building No. 500;		ed	ve years. The for	metery in the forced laborer ntences over f	Jewish ce nd 4,000	ed near the J	OP-3 is loc	5.
chiefs were as follows: Zaczynski (fnu), chief of construction; Olszewski (fnu), assistant chief of construction and the project chief for building (fnu), the assistant project chief for building No. 500;	1052 there were approximately 80 Germans being neit there 2001						6.
		llding 500;	f comstruction; O. oject chief for bu for building No.	(fnu), chief tion and the Y t project chie	Zaczynski construc	a follows: 2 ant chief of	chiefs were	1 7.	25)
5X1								1	ر م
CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL		*		DENTIAL	CONFI	SSIFICATION	,	. 1	ر ل.
STATE X NAVY X NSRB DISTRIBUTION  ARMY X AIR -X FBI						NSRB	X NAVY

Approved For Release 2005/07/13 : CIA-RDP80-00810A002900470008	1
CONFIDENTIAL
= 2 w

- 8. Building No. 500 was adjacent to OF-1 and was under construction in May 1993. This is a four-story building which is to be the message center for the MEP and will have telephone and cable connections with all the principal cities of Poland.
- 9. Building No. 267 was also under construction in May 1953. This is a 100-car garage, with maintenance and repair shops, which is intended for the storage and the maintenance of all MBP vehicles in the Warsaw area.
- 10. The practice racetrack, north and adjacent to OP-1, is used for the underground storage of gasoline supplies for the IBP vehicles.

CONFIDENTIAL